Our Fight For Victory!

For business is campaigning. It has all the elements of courage except bodily risk. It has its watchwords, its standards. There is the ever-alertness for the concealed antagonist, the sudden surprise of crafty competition. There are enemies worthy of your steel—and there are guerrillas whose pot-fire is aimed at your back.

And the campaign is always on. The last trench is never dug. There are no winter quarters. The bugle is forever sounding the advance. Fatigue is cowardice. Failure is treason. Napoleon's troops slept on the march, but they moved forward, always forward. New cries were invented to rouse them. "The Cossacks are coming," and the shout would startle the sleeping heroes into new energy.

Push forward! March on! Keep your armor burnished. Get the range of your opponent. Study his equipment, then your own, and press into use the overpowering strength of better weapons. "God is on the side of the heaviest artillery"—success is a general who has cowards for enemies and slaves for troops. Push your campaign. Take new rallying cries and fight competition to the death.

Do not fail to have a look at our HOLIDAY GOODS.

The contests will decide the athletic championship of the season, and medals of special design will be awarded the winners.

MEN TO DRAFT A CHARTER FOR CITY

Independents Said To Have Named 18 Already of the Proposed 30.

The Independents met last night at their headquarters for the purpose of considering the naming of men for the drafting of a municipal charter. After the meeting, Robert N. Boyd, one of the professed leaders of the party, was asked whether they had completed their list.

"We have not," said Mr. Boyd emphatically. "There was a list of names printed in an afternoon paper today which is certainly not authoritative. I don't know where they got the list from, and I can say just this much for it—that it is not correct by any means, nor official."

The list of names referred to, however, is said by one of the Independent leaders to be about correct, and is as follows:

Hon. A. S. Humphreys, Judge.
C. C. Bittling, Attorney.
H. S. Townsend, School Teacher.
Allan Herbert, Capitalist.
John Cassidy, Electrician.
E. C. Rowe, Painter.
James C. Quinn, Hack Driver.
J. Edwards, Contractor.
John H. Wilson, Contractor.
Jas. K. Kaula, Attorney.
Robert N. Boyd, Surveyor.
Solomon Meheula, Printer.
S. K. Pua, Farmer.
George Kala, Printer.
J. K. Nakookoo, Attorney.
W. H. Kallimal, Hack Driver.
L. M. Kealoha, Farmer.
J. K. Kaunamano, Attorney.
